VAYA A LA CONFERENCIA DE LA RAZA UNIDA EL 5 DE JUNIO!!!!!!!!!!!

****

Mr. George Garcia, a teacher at Iowa City and Mr. Juan Rodriguez who is working on his doctorate in Spanish Literature also in Iowa City, were the guest speakers at dialogues held at the YWCA in Muscatine April 14th and 21st respectively.

Mr. Garcia spoke about the cultural differences between the Mexican-Americans and Anglos such as: personal values, life styles, religious faith, etc.

Mr. Rodriguez discussed the history of Mexican-Americans and our literature. He pointed out that today the Mexican-American people are coming to the attention of the sociologists because we have been able to retain our individuality in this age of advanced technology.

Both these sessions were an opportunity for people to gain more understanding of the Chicano background and culture.

MARCH FOR DEVELOPMENT

A March for Hunger was held in Iowa City May 2nd. One-third of the money resulting from the March is to be donated to the Migrant Center. This money is to be used for emergency needs such as when persons need money for rent or food or have no money when they come into town.

Our special thanks to: Dave Metz, Arturo Rivera, Kathy Moriarity, Randy Roberts, Chuck Erskin, Sonia and Mary Ann Ebbing for joining us in the March.

DESPIERTENSE CHICANOS!

BY Ernesto Rodriguez

Que nos pasa a los Mexicanos que no podemos ser comprensivos con nuestros hermanos que se encuentran en situaciones mas desaventajadas? Me he encontrado con algunos amigos de vez en cuando que como yo son nacidos y criados en los Estados Unidos pero hijos de padres que vinieron a este pais ya hace muchos anos buscando una vida mejor. Y como yo, ellos tambien se acuerdan cuando nos contaban nuestros jefes de como se ganaron la vida haciendo los trabajos duros t sucios del campo o en los ferrocarriles. Los gringos consideran esta clase de trabajo muy bajo e insignificante para ellos y como el pago fue poco, dejaron que los Mexicanos hicieran este trabajo.
